News We are loving having the storefront studio in downtown Jonesborough (although our busy painting schedules keep us from having regular business hours. We are working on that – meanwhile, call us to make an appointment!). We had a wonderful “Light, Life, Atmosphere” workshop at the McKinney Center in May after our winter classes came to an end. Since then, Tom has been painting and working on commissions at the Johnson City studio. He will be teaching a figure drawing course at ETSU this summer and so the RSS figure/portrait workshop will be postponed for now. Stay posted for the RSS Fall Schedule and Open Studio Events.
